"I attend our National Conference every year and I would never miss NEDCC because the conversations tend to go deeper and last longer when you are looking for advice to help your agency. Vendors have told me the same thing. And, it is much easier to get more information from any of the speakers. "

Patty Genovay President, A-1 Collection Service

"The Northeast Debt Collection Conference and Expo is the standard bearer among industry events. The VoApps DirectDrop Voicemail team exhibits at over 30 conferences annually and there is no better show than NEDCC. Incredible networking opportunities, action-packed informative sessions, and the work-hard play-hard mentality of this group is what makes NEDCC a benchmark event. " Kirby Miller, VoApps Director of Sales

BillingTree has been a sponsor of the NEDCC for years and we've always found it to be a great way to showcase our latest payment technology and solutions. Their member attendees represent a broad array of agencies of all sizes and this annual event is vital part of our efforts to serve and support the ARM Industry.

Dave Yohe, BillingTree Vice President of Marketing

"For 30 years I have been actively participating in industry conferences as an attendee and a speaker. The NEDCC has proven to be absolutely one of the very best meetings in the country and held at attractive venues with high profile speakers and an exciting Expo Hall! Come and learn, network and have fun with industry friends!"

Harry Strausser III, ARM Industry Consultant
